

Silence in Science and Speaking in Faith

Laurence Freeman OSB and Alan Wallace in dialogue

An evening to explore with Alan Wallace and Laurence Freeman the different ways of knowing as reflected in science and contemplation. How do we discover and uncover the mysteries of life and the world around us? Is science the sole arbiter of reality? Is faith irrational and therefore unreliable? What do we give authority to – religion's beliefs, scientific evidence, philosophical speculations or something other?

Saturday 2 September
5.00 – 9.00 pm

Colet House
151 Talgarth Rd
London W14 9DA

Cost £20
Concessions £10

LAURENCE FREEMAN is a Benedictine monk and spiritual successor of John Main and has been teaching meditation in the Christian tradition since the 1970s. He is the Founder and Director of The World Community for Christian Meditation. Author, retreat leader and international speaker, he sees the contemplative as the essential dimension of humanity and all spirituality and is deeply committed to inter-faith dialogue.

ALAN WALLACE is a scholar and practitioner of Buddhism and has taught Buddhist theory and meditation worldwide since 1976. Having devoted 14 to training as a Tibetan Buddhist monk, ordained by H. H. the Dalai Lama, he went on to earn degrees in physics and the philosophy of science a doctorate in religious studies at Stanford. With his unique background, Alan Wallace brings deep experience and applied skills to the challenge of integrating traditional Indo-Tibetan Buddhism with the modern world.

Outreach of meditatio
The World Community for Christian Meditation

BOOKING INFORMATION online <http://conta.cc/2kGj3OY>

Cheques made payable to: Contemplative Consciousness Network

Send to Elizabeth West, 16 Servite House, 27 Bramley Road, London, N14 4HQ