INTERFAITH MEDITATION FOR PEACE

A day to celebrate unity and pray for peace

At Manchester Cathedral, Victoria Street, Manchester, M3 1SX

Friday 25 May 2018 10.00 am – 4.00 pm

Join a gathering of people from all backgrounds in a silent meditation of unity – with people from different faiths or none. We will celebrate and strengthen the powerful spirit of community in Manchester which followed the tragic event of 22 May 2017.

Key note speaker: Laurence Freeman OSB

Interfaith Meditation for Peace

Friday 25 May
10.00 am – 4.00 pm

This interfaith meditation day will celebrate unity and pray for peace – a peace much needed in our turbulent times. The day will have periods of silent meditation, a talk and reflection by Laurence Freeman OSB, a Peace Flag Ceremony by the World Peace Prayer Society and input from different faith groups. The day will conclude at 4.00 pm with a Peace Walk.

Please bring a packed lunch or you can use the nearby cafes.

There is no charge for this event but donations towards costs will be gratefully received.

Laurence Freeman OSB is the Director of The World Community for Christian Meditation and a Benedictine monk. International speaker, retreat leader and author, Fr Laurence is active in inter-faith dialogues for which he was awarded the Order of Canada, and international multi-faith initiatives such as the Way of Peace with the Dalai Lama and other faith leaders.

The World Community for Christian Meditation has a presence in 100 countries. Through its outreach programme, Meditatio, it nurtures interfaith friendship believing that meditation opens us to the common ground of humanity – and the essential goodness of human nature. www.wccm.org

The World Peace Prayer Society was conceived in a moment of inspiration by Masahisa Goi of Japan in 1955. The simple yet profound words – May Peace Prevail on Earth – has reached deep in the hearts and lives of people around the globe. The World Peace Prayer and Flag Ceremony has been presented on every continent and in every major city in the world. www.worldpeace.org
